By GO WEST

Don't cry baby

Kiss me and say farewell

Nothing's going to break the spell

And if you're thinking time will tell

I want you to know..

Every minute of every single day

Even when I'm miles away

I'll keep the promises I made

I want you to know..

I will be faithful to my lover's prayer

Faithful - and I don't care

If the world around us gives up on love

I will make you see

You can count on me

I will be faithful -

Faithful to my lover's prayer

To my lover's prayer

Listen baby

You can lean on me

Though we sail on stormy seas

Nothing good comes easily

But I won't let you down..

I will be faithful to my lover's prayer

Faithful - and I don't care

If the world around us gives up on love

I will make you see

You can count on me

I will be faithful -

Faithful to my lover's prayer

Baby you can lean on me

You can lean on me

Baby you can lean on me

You can lean on me

Baby you can lean on me

You can lean on me

Baby you can lean on me

You can lean on me..

Trust me baby this is not goodbye

There's no need for you to cry

What we've got's too strong

To be denied..

I will be faithful to my lover's prayer

Faithful - and I don't care

If the world around us gives up on love

I will make you see

You can count on me

I will be faithful to my lover's prayer

Faithful to the dream we share

If the world around us gives up on love

I will make you see

You can count on me

I will be faithful

Faithful to my lover's prayer

Faithful to the dream we share
