The Street - Midnight

(Tony is calling for Chino to kill him too. Maria steps out of the darkness. Then another figure appears: Chino. As Maria and Tony run to each other, Chino shoots Tony, and he stumbles. Maria watches him and cradles him in her arms. Other Jets, Sharks and girls run on).

MARIA:

Hold my hand and we're halfway there.

Hold my hand and I'll take you there.

Somehow,

Some day...

TONY:

Hold my hand and I'll take you there,

Somehow ...

(He dies. After a moment Maria gently rests him on the floor and lightly brushes his lips with her fingers. Krupke, Doc and other adults have entered).

MARIA (softly, privately): Te adoro, Anton.

(She kisses him gently. Two Jets and two Sharks lift up Tony's body and carry him out. The others fall in behind to make a procession. Maria sits quietly. At last, she gets up and, despite her tears, lifts her head proudly and turns to follow the others. The adults are left alone.)
