I see a love you can't believe in.
'Cause you were never there when I needed you.
I asked for you to change; I begged and pleaded you.

Chorus:

But I'm afraid it's over now,
We'll go our ways and live somehow.
I can't take any more of you.
It's time to clean my slate and start anew.
And now I'm gone, you say you miss me.
You want me back to love and kiss me.
Just look at you, all down on one knee.
I won't look back, no now I'm free!

(Chorus)

Bridge:

Leave me alone, stay away!
I'm here to start with a new day.
I don't want any part of you.
Give it up, 'cause it's through!
I'm all alone, and I'm not afraid.
Not after all the kinda games you played.
I don't want any part of you.
Give it up, 'cause it's through!
I guess inside, I'm a little mad.
But all in all, it wasn't bad.
I'm thankful for the time we had.
I wished it could have worked.

(Chorus)
