There in the summer
of my new obsession
when all of my dreams started in the depression

8 in the morning
and i got your letter
sealed with a kiss
p.s things will get better
and i never say no to you
and i never say no to you get me up early

so motivated
(well be alright)
life as we know it is so overated you are the best thing that i ever needed
safe in this world that is wrestless and greedy

and i never say no, to you.. and i never say no, to you...

you said
(you said)
everything
(everything)
will be alright
everything
will be alright

you said
(you said)
everything
(everything)
will be alright

come to my rescue whenever i call knock on my door if ever i fall
come to my rescue whenever i call say you will, say you will, say you will, say you will

knock on my door if ever i fall just say you wil, say you will,sayyyy

you said
(you said)
everything
(everything)
will be alright
everything
will be alright
you said
(you said)
everything
would be alright

and i never say no to you
say you will, sayyyy

will be alright
come to my rescue whenever i fall

well be alright
