Wake up, been here before
Slept all night on her bedroom floor.
I slip out the window
Shoes untied it's time
I put the love that I lost in a cardboard box
Ship to you, PS, no return address, no, no.
I gotta let go.

Ready for take off
Out into nothing
No there's gotta be something
If I crash I'll begin again
The weatherman's giving me rain
Pop an umbrella
I'll float away
Live it up like a holiday.

Cause everything's fine
Yeah everything's fine
Ready for take off
Out into nothing
No there's gotta be something
If I crash I'll begin again

Hey, hey pull the trigger
Here's to the start of bigger
I'm sorry, I'm not sorry
I play the part, but I can only apologize
One million times before it don't mean shit
And you know it
Ready for take off
Out into nothing
No there's gotta be something
If I crash I'll begin again
The weatherman's giving me rain
Pop an umbrella
I'll float away
Live it up like a holiday

Cause everything's fine
Yeah everything's fine

Ready for take off
Out into nothing
No there's gotta be something, something
I'll start over, over
This time I'm gonna get it right
I'm gonna start over, over
This time I'm gonna get it right.
Alright

Ready for take off
Out into nothing
If I crash I'll begin again
Pop an umbrella
I'll float away

Cause everything's fine

I'm ready for take off
Out into nothing
Hah
