She's a city girl, flashes lead her down the runway
She's my airplane, stares at the sun, looks down on everyone
And keeps rocking her new shades, her new shades

I'm a city boy, living in the shadows of time square
Praying to go somewhere and everyday
I turn to cold and rock my shades
And I will make it through this night alive, alive

Can you find me in the midst of a crowd?
Do you dream of me when the lights go down?
Do you breathe me in the smoke from your cigarette?
Do you feel me with every breath?

She's my highschool sweetheart
She's keeps her red lipstick on
And every morning she wakes up
Puts on her make up and sings my songs

And I will make it through this night alive, alive

Can you find me in the midst of a crowd?
Do you dream of me when the lights go down?
Do you breathe me in the smoke from your cigarette?
Do you feel me with every breath?

I'm an old school popstar
Shaking up her not new angles, pent up by angels
Can't catch my breath to speak
Can't keep my monsters out of me

And I will make it through this night alive, alive

Can you find me in the midst of a crowd?
Do you dream of me when the lights go down?
Do you breathe me in the smoke from your cigarette?
Do you feel me with every breath?

Can you find me in the midst of a crowd?
Do you dream of me when the lights go down?

Do you breathe me in the smoke from your cigarette?
Do you feel me with every breath?
