

Summer Set, The "Where Are You Now?"

Visit "Where Are You Now?" on MotoLyrics.com

I've been staying awake in the front seat for days, let the wheel turn and take me away Oh the truth I must tell, is I'm lonely as hell, still looking for myself

It rains all day when you're not around and I'm trying my best to come clean with the clouds They follow me around, I'll dance 'till the rain comes down

Stuck in the sand with the waves at my feet and I wish you'd come crash into me
'cause where you are is where I want to be now Where are you now?

and I know I'm not perfect but what the hell Do you think of me now? Do you think of me now?

They say that love is for the patient Got to plan for being restless for now

Hope I'm more than a cheap trick you played on yourself
But I do it so well, yea I'm doing so well

They follow me around, I'll dance 'till the rain comes
down

Stuck in the sand with the waves at my feet and I wish you'd crash into me
'cause where you are is where I want to be now
Where are you now?

But when I leave she walks and she talks and She stirs my feet like she's sleeping next to me Doesn't matter where we are Doesn't matter where we are Doesn't matter if we're states apart, she loves me

