"So Far Away"

I try to feel the distance
That has grown between us
Open up as lonely as the space between the stars
I wish that i could find a way
To smash my fist right through these walls
Of ugliness
And emptyness
And gently touch your face
(Chorus)
But everytime that I touch you
It feels so far away
And everytime that you need me
I feel so far away
I see you silently beside me
Choking back your tears
I wonder if you recognize
The silence there that defines us
Desperatly I try to fight
This overwhelming sense that I
May never find the strength to change
How hopeless we've become

(Chorus)

Can I feel so far away?

I feel so far away

I need to find a way to break this silence (x3)

That's between us

So I scream your name

I scream your name (x2)

(Chorus)

And everytime that you reach out

You feel me pull away

And everytime that I touch you, I touch you, I touch you

You feel so far away
