you know i see her, in the park you know i see her, and its dark I'm gonna come out, oh I'm gonna come out from behind this tree, oh me and this lg you know ill show ya, oh ya ill show ya ill show ya mine, at the right, time

Chorus:

Lgs, oh please
Lgs, oh please
Lgs, get on your knees

shes only thirteen, going fourteen, but shes the best lg I've ever seen light brown hair, and only a-cup, and i asked her "hey whats up" we started talking, and hit it off, and she said "turn your head and cough" we kept on talking, and got away, and oh doctor did we play

Chorus

you know i saw her, at the party drinking whiskey, and Bacardi but then you know, she hit the floor smack dab, right on the floor but this my friends is when i go, oh ya i go, for the score

Chorus

still in middle school, still full of spunk, i bet she'd love it, in the badunkadunk how she got to a grad party I'll never know, but oh her boobies she did show wearin' her favorite t-shirt, its Hello Kitty, how can i help it
I'm part of the itty bitty titty committee
