There's a storm
It's comin' around
And the snow is fallin'
It's comin' from the clouds
Don't you walk away
With my love
Don't you walk away now
From my home
I'm asking you to hear my pleas
I know the shelter of your arms
Walked into spin my veins
Need the Shelter of your arms
There's a sadness
It's feeling my heart
And the sun is tearin' me apart
Don't you walk away with my love
Don't you walk away now I'm on my own
I'm asking you to hear my pleas
I need the Shelter of your arms
Walked into spin your veins
I need the Shelter of your arms
Shelter of your arms
Shelter of your arms
Shelter of your arms
I need the Shelter of Your Arms
Shelter of your arms
Shelter of your arms
Shelter of your arms
I need the Shelter of Your Arms
