[Verse 1]

Party with the sun yeah, party with the sun yeah
Me and you girl get down with the oh yeah
Party never stops the party keeps going
Turn on the radio; turn me on like a stereo
Fill my night while fill up your cups
Lips so sweet, taste like peanut butter cups
You be the cover of J-14
While crusin in the back of my red limousine

[Hook]

I know a place with flashing lights
I know a city that shines so bright
I know a town you want to see
I know I know
We can make a fresh new start
Tell your friend you will send them a postcard
I know this is the place from the bottom of my heart
Let's take a trip to sunset boulevard

[Chores]

I like the girl with sugar and spice
I like the girl that parties all night
I like my girl naught not nice
I want that girl I want that girl
I want the girl with the hazel green eye
Every time I look in them, I get hypnotized
Every time I kiss her, I get paralyzed
I want that girl I want that girl

[Verse 2]

I said baby, baby you can lay me down I'll play the ukulele
Singing lullabies to my lady on the daily
She's so cute she's so fine
She's my apple of my eye, she's my sunshine
Baby fine like the red wine stuck to my lips
Maybe you can help me get it off with the kisses
11:11 come on make a wish
If I could

[Hook]

I know a place with flashing lights
I know a city that shines so bright
I know a town you want to see
I know I know
We can make a fresh new start
Tell your friend you will send them a postcard
I know this is the place from the bottom of my heart
Let's take a trip to sunset boulevard

[Chores]

I like the girl with sugar and spice
I like the girl that parties all night
I like my girl naught not nice
I want that girl I want that girl
I want the girl with the hazel green eye
Every time I look in them, I get hypnotized
Every time I kiss her, I get paralyzed
I want that girl I want that girl

[Ending Bridge]

I want that girl
I-I want that girl
I like the girl with sugar and spice
I like the girl that parties all night
I like my girl naught not nice
I want that girl I want that girl
