To realize what we do, what we've been through Such a battle
To look at nothing like its gold, and by the way, Heres a thank you for giving a chance and not turning your back
On the hope that you saw in our eyes...

And this time we'll do it right
(With everything)
Just to let us have a try
(Means everything)
This is our time and our place to be seen in a whole different light
And it just might change our lives...

There isn't time to relax and we have some questions
What is it like to look and see that all your prayers have been answered?
To look at this life and to know its alright is a comfort that we've never had

And this time we'll do it right
(With everything)
Just to let us have a try
(Means everything)
This is our time and our place to be seen in a whole
different light
And it just might change our lives...
