Intro: E A E

E A

It's lonely out tonight down here in Georgia

E B

And the oldest friend I got I met today

E A

The women that I love just up and left me

E B E

And the place I loves a thousand miles away

E A

Operator hook me up to Houston

E B

Get me anybody on the phone

E A

Look there in your book and pick a number

E B E

Cause you can't be choosy when your this alone

Chorus:

A

Won't you talk to me Texas

E

Let me hear that draw

A

I spent my last five dollar's

B

On this one long distance call

E

Won't you talk to me Texas

A

I got these home sick blues

E B E

Tell me I can come on home to you

E A

I got this faded number in my wallet

E B

It's been in here a dozen years I know

E A

I used to call it up when I was lonely

E B E

Lord that women sure could love me so

E A

I know by now she's probably changed her number

E B

And with my luck she's probably changed her name

E A

If there's a chance in hell I think I'll take it

E B E

Cause I'd love to hear that women's voice again
