Where is the love from birth?
Where it's gone?
Where is the love for humanity?
Where it's gone?

The love for the children
Respect for the elders
Where it's gone?
Where it's gone?

I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know

I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know
When will they get it right
And live in the light?

Prayers to my city
Praise for the nightfall
Rain wash my memory
Time climb a great wall

Please don't desert me
Not in the forest
Grace where I trespass
Calling my goddess

This is not real
This is not, not what you see

Where is the love from birth?
Where it's gone?
Where is the love for humanity?
Where it's gone?

I wanna know
I wanna know

I wanna know
I wanna know
Tell me

I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know
Tell me

I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know
I wanna know

Dream my grandfather
Dream of great quiet
Marry a flash between
Words and blue silence

Gentle disour
Where does the eye weigh
Brave all these cowards
Racing, racing, racing, racing away
Racing, racing, racing, racing away

This is not real
