"Seeing Through Walls"

I don't need you breathing down my neck day and night
I can't see how this will turn out right
'Cause you say "This is the end" walking a long round the bend,
Keeping your head high as I'm walking by

I can't see how this will turn out right
Cause I can see through walls
But I can't read your thoughts

aa aa aa aaa aa aa aa aa

I don't know what to do, it always goes wrong and I screw up when I try to fix things with you and I am always the one to blame for everything do You really need to pick on every small thing?

I don't think you've thought this through enough why can't you
See what you have done to me now take it back

I don't think you've thought this through enough why
can't you
See what you have done to me now take it back,
You give me a heart-attack, now take it back,
I can not take this crap, so take it back
