No one sits with him, he doesn't fit in
But we feel like we do when we make fun of him
'Cause you want to belong do you go along
'Cause his pain is the price paid for you to belong
It's not like you hate him or want him to die
But maybe he goes home and thinks suicide
Or he comes back to school with a gun at his side
And a kindness from you might have saved his life

Heroes are made when you make a choice

You could be a hero
Heroes do what's right
You could be a hero
You might save a life
You could be a hero
You could join the fight
For what's right for what's right for what's right

No one talks to her, she feels so alone
She's in too much pain to survive on her own
The hurt she can't handle overflows to a knife
She writes on her arm, wants to give up her life
Each day she goes on is a day that she's brave,
Fighting the lie that giving up is the way,
Each moment of courage her own life she saves
When she throws the pills out a hero is made

Heroes are made when you make a choice

You could be a hero
Heroes do what's right
You could be a hero
You might save a life
You could be a hero
You could join the fight
For what's right for what's right for what's right

No one talks to him about how he lives
He thinks that the choices he makes are just his
Doesn't know he's a leader with the way he behaves

And others will follow the choices he's made
He lives on the edge; he's old enough to decide
His brother who wants to be him is just nine
He can do what he wants because it's his right
The choices he makes change a nine year-old's life

Heroes are made when you make a choice

You could be a hero
Heroes do what's right
You could be a hero
You might save a life
You could be a hero
You could join the fight
For what's right for what's right for what's right

Little Mikey D was always the one in class
Who every day got brutally harassed
This went on for years
Till he decided that never again would he shed another tear
So he walked through the door
And grabbed a 44
Out of his father's dresser drawer
And said "I can't take life no more"
And like that, life can be lost

But this ain't even about that
All of us just sat back
And watched it happen
Thinkin' it's not our responsibility
To solve a problem that isn't even about me
This is our problem
This is just one of the daily scenarios
Which we choose to close our eyes
Instead of doing the right thing
If we make a choice
And be the voice
For those who won't speak up for themselves
How many lives will be saved
Changed, rearranged
Now it's our time to pick a side
So don't keep walking by
Not wanting to intervene
Cause you just want to exist
And never been seen
So let's wake up
Change the world
Our time is now

You could be a hero

Heroes do what's right (our time is now)
You could be a hero
You might save a life (our time is now)
You could be a hero
You could join the fight (our time is now)
