(Spoken) Alright guys, this a simple 1, 2, 3, 4 in the key of F#

Watch me for the changes and..

Just try to keep up

You hate men, is what you say and I understand how you feel that way all girls dream of a fairy tale but what you got's like a used car salesman trying to conceal what's wrong behind a smile and a song and I'm not saying that boys are not like that but I think you should know that some of us will grow because.....

all princes start as frogs, all gentlemen as dogs just wait till it's plain to see what we're growing up to be cause some frogs will still be frogs some dogs will still be dogs some boys can become men just don't kiss us til then
