Living in this nightmare
Destroying my dreams
Lying to myself
While regret keeps haunting me
But can I change my ways
Of counting the days
that keep on fading away
I keep losing the day
But when it's gone
When the hourglass falls
Will I have more than regret
To show for it all
Or will I wake up
And start living my dreams
Instead of letting this nightmare
Take control of me

Live today through the future's lens
Don't wanna wish you could rewind and play it again

Stand up, write the soundtrack for your life
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life
Stand up, do something with your life
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life

You're bored, gotta wonder if there's more
Waiting for the dream life you thought you had in store Trying to feel something you can chase a life that's thriller
Living on the edge drinking, smoking dream killers Coulda been, shoulda been, woulda been What might your life have been
Today you're not a has been, but at your life's end
Will you have regrets then, have regrets then?
Are you okay with today if tomorrow is the end?

Live today through the future's lens
Don't wanna wish you could rewind and play it again

Stand up, write the soundtrack for your life
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life

Stand up, do something with your life
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life

We're all scared, gotta wonder what's out there Shooting down the ones who did what we wish we dared
Everybody's scared to karaoke in the open Afraid we're not as special as what we might be hoping
So, we're frozen, haven't chosen
Just going through the motions
Faith and belief, courage overrule emotions
Stand up and be counted for something when it's time
Decide where you stand, take your hands raise 'em high

Live today through the future's lens
Don't wanna wish you could reset and play it again

Stand up, write the soundtrack for your life
It doesn't happen to you, you happen to life
Stand up, do something with your life
It doesn't happen to you, your happen to life
