o well here is me on tragedy i always want whats out of reach she pulles dyed brown hair back and signs so fuck that night out with the guys i never get a word in with them anyway the telephone doesnt scare me anymore your home and i am here alone my dear always stupidly sarcastic my hyper spastic superhero grl

so break the bruised monogamy and let him fade to memory your erotic wet atomic eyes keep reoccurrin in my mind do me a favor please and touch your lips to mine...
