

Who, The "You Stand By Me"

Visit "You Stand By Me" on MotoLyrics.com

When I'm in trouble you stand by me
When I see double you stand by me
You take my side against those who lied
You take my side, give me back my pride

When I've been losing you stand by me
When I've been boozing you stand by me
You take my side against those who lied
You take my side, give me back my pride

I suppose I could make it all on my own
I know I'd grab a skin in a bone
You were the strongest spec I've ever known
You carried me, carried me, carried me
You carried me home

When I'm crying you stand by me
When I'm dying you stand by me
