What type of shit you on, I hope you got insurance
Before I sit you on my gurney
And lead you to an anesthetic breather
If ya not broke, I'll save your face like dope and make it

I hear the same ole rhymes, the same ole style
(It seems you need plastic surgery)X5

Xzibit:
I'm located, at, the bottom of the black list
I like to malpractice, complicate a surgery Intoxicated, smoke cigaretts, drop ass in your gases feel the utencil, knife is dull like a pencil
And what?
When a nigga place pussy get fucked
Without a kiss or a hug, like contaminated blood, Transfused from a junkie
With the hair of Jones, I reconstruct the bones
Of all hip hop clones

Ras Kass:
I date fat girls that weight 215
With low self esteem, cause it's easier to get the pussy
I'm performing vinyl liposuctions

Saafir:
Phat MC

Ras Kass:
Phat production, motherfuckin' facial reconstruction Needles injected 33 RPM of anestic for ? to require cosmetic
sex changes from bitch niggas to ra ra niggas
the only cure for sick lyrics is to implant a hit gimmick

Saafir:
This shit is full blown, you better head to the clinic
After Captain Save A Hoe, we had the luitenit

Operate get straight, we hear to separate the fake from the classic

Hook

Ras Kass:

I'm like Dougie Howser MD with a desert eagle Criminal Genius
operation, separating them siamese twins hangin'
beneath them niggas penis Take it to your face like a skin graph rappers, I specialize in talent transplants (word?)
You want (phat) fat lips nurse get to college
And ten tons of stomach pumps from all the cum you and Richard Gere be swallowin'
Now followin' ask Vanna to buy you flowers so you can C (see) I A (aye) E-Swift O (Oh) U (you) know
Y (why)
We remain uncontested to the contender, we can Million Man March all the way to December
January, February 28th

Saafir:

I, never, wash my hands
The only rubber gloves I wear is on my dick
But I'll split you quick
Like Jackie Chan, the way I switch my wristband
I make ya sick, but I'm a doctor, don't trip Hopefully, in surgery, I won't slip on a tile that file and twist ya lips
Like Collin Powell
Descriptions I'm overwrite
For the ones that over bitin' on dental records bitin', to God, send your blessings I'll put your mask on, fast like Romidon minks and bitches, I have, ? half blind in the paper, they named me
A Large Professor, a Mad Scientist, with a long line of clients
BITCH! GET OUT OF MY OFFICE
You don't have an appointment or an application
For me to attack your face in my practice
Never lackin' when I'm insurting these plastic patches
Seems like you need plastic surgery
