I'll be by the front door,
We'll leave when you want,
You're having a good time,
And you know me,
I'll wait around.

I'm standing outside now,
No one's around,
It's so cold my lips are numb,
I'll sit on the front steps,
And wonder if I will completely freeze out here.

I hear you from inside,
You're laughing the way,
You do when I'm not there,
And you know me,

I'll wait around.

I'm standing outside now,
No one's around,
It's so cold my lips are numb,
I'll sit on the front steps,
And wonder if I will completely freeze out here.

I think,
That maybe I should get up and just drive away,
I'm shivering hard now,
My face,
Has barely any feeling left anymore,
I'm shivering hard now.
