It was a day of Remorse

We gave our final hugs and said Adios

The Day before I sat there Striving at the florr

I couldn't believe that what i had Done

I lost my baby boo to you know who

(Chorus)

I wish i neverDOne that, I wish I never Said that

But what Can I do I've got to Face the Punishment that

I have Lost you

The girl I'd talk to While I was with you

Hoped We'd End like a Man about to make his Last Sin

She Would Taunt me, Tease, and Never Wanted to Leave me.

I wish I never met the Angle of Death

Who Changed Our Destiny

I Had A plan for You and Me,

That We would be Together Till the Day we Died.

I would Rather lose you Like Romeo and Juliet

Instead I hurt you You which I said That I would Never do.

I said I was sorry but Sorry doesn't do it

I Got on ym Knees and Read A piece of My heart

I guess You Would Rather Not hear it For your Ears wouldn't Listen To it

I Cry out Loud And hope That You Come to me

But For Now I sit on your Steps Hoping that You will Come down Your Stairs,

Just Like My Tears

(Chorus)

I Could Only Hope You Have a Change of Heart

And not Let this Relationship Fall Apart

I Know it would Be Hard, but trust Tends to grow

Love Has Always been There From head to Toe

All I need is My Girl Back to Make My Life complete

I would Promise Loyalty And Romance From day to day

Saying This From My heart Is Easier Than Trying to

Sleep at Night, i thought You were My Life But WHAT Can I Say

(CHORUS X2)
