written by John Wayne Wiggins - Bobby Carmichael

If you had a heart

You wouldn't be breaking mine

If you really cared

You wouldn't be so unkind

You run around all over town

And feed me alibis

If you had a heart

You wouldn't be breaking mine

If I could make you see how much

You're hurting me, it's killing me

I wonder if you'd even change at all

When I try to sleep

I see you with someone new

I can't help but wonder if You're holding her, loving her

If you had a heart

You wouldn't be breaking mine

If you really cared

You wouldn't be so unkind

You run around all over town

And feed me alibis

If you had a heart

You wouldn't be breaking mine

You're not giving me

Enough to keep me hanging on

What I really need

Is you here holding me, loving me
