you say, its ok, didnt have to be this way you say, its alright, maybe someday i'll get it right but im confused, and i dont know what to do you hate the things i do, but you know you do them to i never wanted it this way, but you left me without a choice
you dont know what you want, and you know i dont what i want to you dont know what you need, but i know one thing its that i dont need...

you say, its ok, it didnt have to be this way you say, thats just fine, you got whats yours, and you got mine.

i never wanted it this way, but you left me without a
what i want to
its that i dont need...

what i want to
its that i dont need you.
