Fight for your nation and fight for your land
Fight for what we had and what shall be ours again

In the time when the enemy moves
The defeated masses and the traitors too
We must fight very hard to get what we want
We must fight very hard to get what we want!

The spirit of Hitler will rise again
And help us take back our lands

He'll inspire us to win the fight
Because National-Socialism is always right
We shall make their Hoax-naust empire fall
We shall make their Hoax-naust empire fall!

When the storm-clouds are gathered, you can call His name
From the ashes to the flames, He will rise again
When the storm-clouds are gathered, you can call His
name
From the ashes to the flames, He will rise again
Hail!

Fight for your nation and fight for your land
Fight for what we had and what shall be ours again

In the time when the enemy moves
The defeated masses and the traitors too
We must fight very hard to get what we want
We must fight very hard to get what we want!

When the storm-clouds are gathered, you can call His
name
From the ashes to the flames, He will rise again
When the storm-clouds are gathered, you can call His
name
From the ashes to the flames, He will rise again
