"This Low"

We made a plan that was subject to change
So whatever way it works out we both get the blame
In the arms of this low

And you took the wind right out of my sails
By sweating me out on all the little details in the arms of this low
Oh
In the arms of this low

Thread the light
Thread the light
Thread the light
Thread the light

Thread the light
Thread the light
Thread the light
Thread the light

We made a choice and we knew we would pay
For stealing the joy and trying to escape from the arms
of this low

And if by some chance you break from the pack
You know I'll be waiting to welcome you back into the arms of this low
In the arms of this low

Thread the light
Thread the light
Thread the light
Thread the light

Shine the light
Don't hide the light
Live the light and give the light

Seek the light and speak the light
Crave the light and brave the light

Stare the light and share the light
Show the light and know the light

Raise the light and praise the light
Thread the light and spread the light
