

Swell Season, The "Two Tongues"

Visit "Two Tongues" on MotoLyrics.com

What you give or give out is the only thing that really counts

Will you stay here

Stay around and we'll both start working this out

But it's not just this

It's everything

You're so hard to reach and impossible to really read

When your talking with two tongues in your mouth

And I wish you'd quit this muttering beneath your breath

It's killing me

You've not said nothing yet

Who's talking now

Well I guess I'm starting to doubt

Are we lost here

Are you keeping count

Are you gonna just let me down

Well your heart's not in it

It's everywhere

It's plain to see you're still wondering what's underneath

You're so curious

It's two strikes and you're out

And I'm tiring of this attitude

How you fall to pieces like you do

I can't believe you're still talking with two tongues in your mouth

After all we've been around

Will you hear me out

You're the only thing that really counts
