

Swellers, The "Prime Meridian"

Visit "Prime Meridian" on MotoLyrics.com

I'm looking for direction
I'm not looking for your directions
Cause every time I open up
I end up settling

What if I give up on expectations?
I'm not waiting for the realization
That every day's a chance to cut my life in half
Like the prime meridian

It's not hard to see
The things that you believe
Don't work for me
I'll turn all my clocks back
I know it doesn't work like that
But it's good enough for me

There's no filter on a night drive
I keep staring up at the night sky
I need my sanity so I keep thinking that Someone looks at the same time

Hold your breath while I'm away
East, west, and overseas
Take a look, zero degrees
That's where you'll find me
