even angels fall

you've found hope
you've found faith
found how fast she could take it away found true love lost your heart now you dont know who you are

she made it easy, made it free made you hurt till you couldn't see sometimes it stops
sometimes it flows
but baby, that is how love goes

CHORUS

you will fly and you will crawl god knows even angels fall no such thing as you "lost it all"

its a secret that no one tells one day its heaven one day its hell its no fairy tale, take it from me thats the way its supposed to be

you'll laugh you'll cry, no one knows why but, oh the thrill of it all your on the ride, you might as well open your eyes...

even angels fall...even angels fall...
