Tumbleweed, you're living a cowboy's dream
Tumbleweed, freedom is the air you breathe
But if you don't stop long enough
Let yourself fall in love
Tumbleweed, you're gonna end up lonely

You've been riding the rain all alone for so long
No one can hold you the wind is too strong
I tell you I love you and ask you to stay
You already driftin' away

Tumbleweed, you're living a cowboy's dream
Tumbleweed, freedom is the air you breathe
But if you don't stop long enough
Let yourself fall in love
Tumbleweed, you're gonna end up lonely

You won't be broken and you won't be tied down
You drift with the wind barely touching the ground
Up late at night I'll be under the stars
There's an empty space in your arms

Tumbleweed, you're living a cowboy's dream
Tumbleweed, freedom is the air you breathe
But if you don't stop long enough
Let yourself fall in love
Tumbleweed, you're gonna end up lonely
Tumbleweed, you're gonna end up lonely

Tumbleweed.....
