Let it shine oh let it shine

Let it shine oh let it shine

Let it shine oh let it shine

Let it shine oh let it shine

Shadows fall

The ocean calls to me

The night is still

She's where I wanna be

The stars all send

Their silver light to me

Forever shine

On me eternally

I couldn't think of anything

That gives me more than what you bring

The color of an endless dream

Let it shine

Let it shine

Whoaah-oh

There comes a burning fire

It fills me with desire

And all my troubles disappear

Feels like it's goin' through me

Whatever you do to me

Your words are magic to my ears

Whoaah-oh

Let it shine

A flame that grows

And burns so deep in me

Somebody cries

For all the world to see

Another time

There will be ecstasy

Another place

You will be next to me

Of all the lives that I've been through

I never really thought it was true

That all I ever needed was you

Let it shine

Let it shine

Let it shine oh let it shine

Let it shine oh let it shine

Let it shine oh let it shine

Let it shine oh let it shine

There comes a burning fire

It fills me with desire

And all my troubles disappear

Feels like it's goin' through me

Whatever you do to me

Your words are magic to my ears

Whoaah-oh

Let it shine

There comes a burning fire

It fills me with desire

And all my troubles disappear

Feels like it's goin' through me

Whatever you do to me

Your words are magic to my ears

Whoaah-oh
