Born and raised in the Borough Brooklyn (Ahhhh)
Born and raised, born-born and raised
Born and raised in the Borough Brooklyn

T-BABY:

Yup same hood same blood open your eyes the dark god have arrive we might come two half pie but I would be better off if you suddenly have die But you might mug me up if you have a nine in your thigh
My crew cut pussy like it Frank Lucas burn dimes Yeah right I guess im lying But I don't need a question I just answer to the prayer upon my dying
Cause you can catch a case from Marcy to Space
I don't run away from problems like the cheerleaders on myspace
Please don't go apes
Cause I plastic you up and ship you off like baping apes Because in my hood we don't like nigga scuffling shoes
I make you feel shapeless like steel that don't like horseshoe
Yup, just give us back proof
It must be the hood loving of the thousand folk roots

Born and raised in the Borough Brooklyn (Ahhhh)
Born and raised, born-born and raised
Born and raised in the Borough Brooklyn

At night things make noise from the north and south Thugs are blaze from the great wall to the dragon mouth
End the night with parade for hundred-thousand
No baby crying
They crib is bling out like a new island
So was good with the bloods and those crips

The little see and the vice want to join in So we drive conceded like a fresh blimp Living big and large on 26s
Our car feeling like new pimps
Im in-out the house 24/7
Keep the darkness out from shit from 911
Im on key living life like a b-ball legend
So why I left the hood on June 11
So why must be blind, to cross that Brooklyn line Cause im curse with a gift and that staying alive
Because when you come to hood we called heights
You better more than payless boy Cause we rob all night
Born and raised in the borough Brooklyn (Ahhhh)
Born and raised, born-born and raised
Born and raised in the borough Brooklyn
