I want the money, money and the cars, cars and the clothes

I suppose

I just wanna be, I just wanna be successful

I just wanna be, I just wanna be successful

I just wanna be, I just wanna be successful

My dream seems to never get to me

Leave them in a cloud far in the sky I treat it like victory

I never thought my life was going down in misery

Trying anyway to escape because the devil keep trying to get rid of me

My soul had it own mind it never choose sides for me

I thought I was lying but I was committee suicide within me

Little did I know I always had two sides of me

One for the streets and the other for the King to be

Gun on my left hand, mic on my right

Struggle with the conflict it a hell of a fight

Couldn't never change shit, always getting into shit

Anybody could have been gunning for me, so I just set and quit

I thought I was going to be dead in less than two weeks

So I wrote my rhymes like it was my last words, so it can leave to see

To become what now my life that I always dream to be

I want to be the Kings of Kings and my success is my dynasty

I want the money, money and the cars, cars and the clothes

I suppose

I just wanna be, I just wanna be successful

I just wanna be, I just wanna be successful

I just wanna be, I just wanna be successful

Now these days are start to feel longer

All days in the studios try to make my mind stronger

Success is my main chick I like to be with her present and tomorrow

She like my best friend but sometimes I got to leave her in sorrow

I never think about my life being thought like a contender
Artist after Artist I had to shut em down and become a winner
Pictures at the awards shows always look unfamiliar
I always thought I was a twin because my rep just got a lot bigger
We pop a lot champagne, throw a lot of dollars
We so unselfish but real cocky like we worn the lotto
Chill with the sexy models, including the video models
I had to judge a lot of these hoes on their work like I work on Idol
But it hard I prefer to live in Chicago
Attend all the parties and outdo other rappers like
Rondo
Too nice to stay way from blessing
God make it for the young and doing it cause im reckless
I want the money, money and the cars, cars and the clothes
I suppose
I just wanna be, I just wanna be successful
I just wanna be, I just wanna be successful
I just wanna be, I just wanna be successful
