Take in all of the joy don't let yourself separate just be proud
Cuz this is how the world goes around
And dear you it's not what you've been through
But how you take your past and adjust that
Form a path for the ones that you love
This is how the world goes around

I see you looking for something real
You say you've lost it all and can no longer feel Anything, remembering...
What seems so long ago when you had it all figured out and ready to go
We're cruising faded
But I'm good to go never to gone to roll
Your speaking slur language
Just close your eyes try to enjoy the ride
And let this calm breeze through these windows carry you tonight.

Break through these walls to carry on Cuz she's never been faded like that Life's never been fading like that
For her
Break down these walls to carry on
Cuz she's never been faded like that
Life's never been fading like that
For her

Take in all of the joy don't let yourself separate just be proud
Cuz this is how the world goes around
And dear you it's not what you've been through
Form a path for the ones that you love
This is how the world goes around

So aim for the stars
Come on would you just believe?

Cuz sometimes things you see or feel might just turn out to be Like a dream or how you believed
I know you've lost hope and nothing goods beginning to show
Just the 3 more exits
I don't want you to go but your already home...
Maybe I should let it rest here.
Cuz it's so damn obvious.
You've heard it all before

Break through these walls to carry on
Cuz she's never been faded like that
Life's never been fading like that
For her
Break down these walls to carry on
Cuz she's never been faded like that
Life's never been fading like that
For her
