Caution baby, handle me with care

If you don't want me, somebody else might

Know how to do the right thing, by me

You're hard headed, so stubborn . . .you've gotta change.

You're stayin' out to late at night

If it doesn't cease, I'll take your keys,

I can't understand why you treat me so bad, just treat me right.

If you don't want me, somebody else might want me

So treat me right, give me up.

You don't need it

Don't waste it

Somebody else might want to . . handle me with care.

I need some onion,

I think I deserve it, if you don't want it

Somebody else might, somebody else might.

Handle me care and treat me good

Give me that onion like you know you should.

Oh baby, what am I going to do -aboutcha baby

if you don't want me, somebody else might want me

if you don't want me, somebody else might want me

so give me up, so give me up baby, giv eme up

If you don't want it. . . give me up.

If you don't want it. . . give me up.

If you don't want it. . . give me up.

Somebody else might
