Half the time I'm strong and happy
And half the time I'm sad and lost
What will you do without me,
With all the times our paths have crossed?

Cause you're like gravity
You always let me down
But never gently
And now that I'm not around
For you to give up on me
I'm sorry for everything that's lost
But did it ever cost you
As much as it did me

You're gravity

I'm feeling good right now
I can't touch you without losing
So walk away before I scar
'Cause you're too hard to keep refusing

Cause you're like gravity
You always let me down
But never gently
And now that I'm not around
For you to give up on me
I'm sorry for everything that's lost
But did it ever cost you
As much as it did me

You're gravity

I lost all my heart insurance
A long, long time ago
But heartbreak is no rare occurrence
When you let all yourself go

Cause you're like gravity
You always let me down
But never gently
And now that I'm not around
For you to give up on me

I'm sorry for everything that's lost
But did it ever cost you
As much as it did me

You're gravity
You're gravity
You're gravity
You're gravity

Cause you're like gravity
You always let me down
But never gently
And now that I'm not around
For you to give up on me
I'm sorry for everything that's lost
But did it ever cost you
As much as it did me

You're gravity
You're gravity
You're gravity
You're gravity
