Alright

Got down and dirty With your trophy wife Now you're on a gurney Cause she took your life Yeah you know she's friendly But you couldn't see All the things she's doing When she's next to me Never gonna love you Yeah you understand Had to go and leave you For another man Gave her all your money And we all know why Life is never easy In a suit and tie

I don't see no other way You're up against a wall Living for another day You're cracked up and feeling toll

It was over when it all began Strolling down the ally With another plan Gave her all your money And we all know why Life is never easy In a suit and tie

I don't see no other way
You're up against a wall
Living for another day
You're cracked up and feeling toll
Though you thought
It might be dead
The villain lives
Inside your head
Don't believe what Scarlet said

You know that you'll be stuck again

I don't see no other way
You're up against a wall
Living for another day
You're cracked up and feeling toll
Though you thought
It might be dead
The villain lives
Inside your head
Don't believe what Scarlet said
You know that you'll be stuck again
