Visit "You And Me" on MotoLyrics.com

I know your mind is low
There something you should know
No matter how you feel
Your heart is always real

Some guys pretend to be tough
It's them who made the world rough
But even if they play hard
There's a child in every heart

Everybody loves
Everybody hates
Everybody hurts and feels the pain

Everybody hopes
Everybody fears
Everybody breaks down into tears

Just like you and me

You gotta be in your place
Don't hide away your own face
Turn your mind to where you wanna be
And believe that your soul is free
