i had a love that was so bright.

I used to dream of her each night and then rush to her side every morning(owww)

i had her all to myself, we never noticed anyone else.

we didn't even hear the radio warnings,

Our love was no joke, you know it was the talk of downtown Tokyo,

we'll be happy forever i promised her,

but just as i proposed, her feet were made to touch her nose as she was crushed

by a Japanese monster.

ahhh, ahhh, ahhhh, AHHHHHH GODZILA!

CHORUS: Our love was so true, but now shes 3"2,

and she used to be 5"11

her death was unintentional, but now shes 2 dimentional

my angel is truly in heaven.

she was the one i kissed and hugged 'till she was crushed like a bug

i guess its hard to see a monster above you,

she said she'd save her heart for me, but now its there
for all to see,

and her last words to me were i lo-AHHHHHH!

CHORUS

take it george!

(pause)

she was young(so young)

and sweet(so sweet)

but now shes part(shes part) of the street(the street) and i want (so much) to have her back (come back) so i'll take a party knife so I can scrape her from the cracks...

CHORUS

my angel is truly in heaven
