JACK IN THE BOX

Stop! Don't say you'll put me down.

Love, don't go away.

Drop my feet back on the ground,

open your arms, let me stay.

Hold me like you know you should,

don't leave me on the shelf.

Like a doll you throw away,

so sad and lonely all by myself.

I'm just your jack in the box, you know when ever love
knocks

I'm gonna bounce up and down on my spring.

A toy you start when it stops, I'm just your jack in the
box

because for your love I'd do anything.

Who just keeps my heart around,

loves to pull the strings?

You! And when it's upside down

look at the way that it swings.

I an't help the way I feel,

i t's you and no one else.

Calls the tune but all too soon

I'm just a doll put back on the shelf.

I'm just your jack in the box, you know when ever love
knocks

I'm gonna bounce up and down on my spring.

A toy you start when it stops, I'm just your jack in the
box

because for your love I'd do anything.

La la la...

Hey! Hear what I say, you'll find some day that I've walked away from you.

So say I've got to stay and from today

it's love that's gonna break through.

I'm just your jack in the box, you know when ever love
knocks

I'm gonna bounce up and down on my spring.

A toy you start when it stops, I'm just your jack in the
box

because for your love I'd do anything.

Hey hey!
