What can I do to make you notice me
What can I do to make you understand Everything just doesn't make sense without you here til the end
Someday you'll finally feel what I feel too
Without you I can't even think
Baby without you you make my whole world sink
We'll never know until we try
Just give me one chance I won't lie
Just don't make me feel like I can't try
Make me feel like I always need you by my side You've been the only person I've thought about for a long long time
Just give me one try
We'll make it all right
Please don't make me cry
What can I do to make your eyes catch mine
Shooting star please come over me
I'll make a wish
Please come true
That wish was about you oooooo OOOOO
Someday you'll finally feel what I feel too
Without you I can't even think
Baby without you you make my whole world sink
We'll never know until we try
Just give me one chance Someday you'll finally feel what
I feel too
Without you I can't even think
Baby without you you make my whole world sink
We'll never know until we try
Just give me one chance I won't lie
What can I do
What can I do
What can I do
