English translation

Inside my bag there are always the white candies that I like very much
They become transparent white; the sweet, sweet time goes on Although it is radiant and beautiful, somewhere it dissolves in sad colors

Ah, Like the dear moment of someday Even if I search, I can't find it
My own self that I wanted, where has it gone?
I fear the darkness, so I closed my eyes and ran
The days in which I was trying to escape
just hid my heart
I continued to yell "Where are you right now?"
And if I have turned back,
you would smile and claim "Here I am"
The one who was hiding it was no one but me Even though today I could smile nicely, why can't I cry nicely too?
The tears have nowhere to go, so they sink very, very deeply Although I chew my lips and claim that words have no meaning, Surely there is no way of conveying anything without words
The one star that I found before anyone else Vanished in the flow I fear losing things, so I hold your hand tightly
In the moment I opened my hand, nothing remained there
Somehow tell me, why do we end up losing things?
And my heart now answered "It is for you to search them again"
I fear the darkness, so I closed my eyes and ran
The days in which I was trying to escape
just hid my heart
I continued to yell "Where are you right now?"
And if I have turned back,
you would smile and claim "Here I am"
Soon the dawn is coming,
The one who was hiding it was no one but me
