I guess I'm not the only one to tell you I can see the sun in the smile you're smiling every day.
You know you mean the world to me I think I'm dreaming, but I see it in your eyes and realize that you are reality

I wanna thank you
I wanna thank you in such a special way for the time you spend with me in my life real good moments
'cause without you I could never survive believe me, it's true
I just wanna thank you you with everything that I owe you a feeling that I never knew is what you left forever in my heart you help me when I feeling pain you lead me through the darkest lane in my eyes no surprise you separate the tears from falling rain

I wanna thank you

every minute I'm without you is a lost moment in my life and that moment cuts deep like a knife you give me the power to believe in myself and my dreams again you'll always be a big part of my life

I wanna thank you.....

I wanna thank you, I wanna thank you in such a special way
real good moment that I always will remember you by
real good moment
'cause without you I could never survive

thank you for the real good moment
