It's easy for those who're gone,
But hard to carry on.
The good and bad belonged to us
Like a prayer to a priest.

So I wonder who will care for me
When my heart is cryin' in pain.
Ande the only thing that I can do
Is wait, can I wait?

Chorus:
Time will tell what's on my mind,
Tears will flow until my eyes go blind.
Oh, I sing until I cry
'Cause that's my way to say goodbye.

We built castles in the air
And we watched the world out there
And now there's nothing I can do
But wait, I'll wait for you

Chorus

'Cause that's my way to say goodbye
