I'm back and I'm better than ever
Got an act for making things better
Face facts, 'cause your opinion don't matter
This maniac is gonna step on whomever
It's time, get in line 'cause I'm gonna make changes Kicking ass, taking names, cleaning house all over the place
I'm burning out the dead wood, burning down time
There's a zone my way so get your ass in line
And on top, they say that I've lost it
But chop it down and I swear it's gonna cost ya'
Now I'm back, to boss a few morons
To never count me out is one thing you can count on
It's time, get in line 'cause I'm gonna make changes
Kicking ass, taking names, cleaning house all over the
place
I'm burning out the dead wood, burning down time
There's a zone in my way so get your ass in line
