we were all that we had and we were thicker than blood we would spend all our time in my room dreaming of all the things we would do when it came time to leave I still hear your voice singing Stand By Me promises made over records we played they were ingrained in my soul till the heart till the grave now you're changing your mind just like we didn't exist it's 11:11 and I'm making this wish, OUR TOWN

I can't understand what you're trying to say
I reach out my hand and you turn me away that's why I have to
I can't understand what you're trying to say
I reach out my hand and you turn me away
that's why I have to go far away where I am destined to be and you are destined to be by my side can't you see you can just run away from the things that you hate and you're not giving up, you're just going away on trip that's forever, try the rest of your life forget next year, go tonight, go tonight there is nothing but hurt here and let me down I'm not gonna watch you drown, OUR TOWN

I can't understand what you're trying to say
I reach out my hand and you turn me away
that's why I have to
I can't understand what you're trying to say
I reach out my hand and you turn me away
that's why I have to

I will remember you for what you were not are I will remember you like a ceiling star will you remember me when you pass my house remember the night that we once snuck out to the tracks that night when I promised you I WOULD MARRY YOU, I WOULD MARRY YOU

I said you're all that I have, you are in my blood I thought it was love but I guess it was just OUR TOWN

I can't understand what you're trying to say
I reach out my hand and you turn me away
that's why I have to
I can't understand what you're trying to say
that's why I have to go, OUR TOWN
