I want to break out
I want to break out from this trap I'm in

I want to shake out
I want to shake out all this talk of sin

But when the night is cold
Protect my heart and soul
Keeping our mystery alive

I never thought they could be serious
With all this talk about a threat to us
Staying alive
Staying alive when the night is cold

But then a friend of mine was called one day
I knew there couldn't be another way
I'll hold you tight
I'll hold you tight when the night is cold

Love and devotion
Love and devotion may be news to you
Sincere emotion
Sincere emotion has to last all through

But when the night is cold
Protect my heart and soul
Keeping our mystery alive

I never thought they could be serious
With all this talk about a threat to us
Staying alive
Staying alive when the night is cold

But then a friend of mine was called one day
I knew there couldn't be another way
I'll hold you tight
I'll hold you tight when the night is cold

I never thought they could be serious
With all this talk about a threat to us

Staying alive
Staying alive when the night is cold

But then a friend of mine was called one day
I knew there couldn't be another way
I'll hold you tight
I'll hold you tight when the night is cold

I never thought they could be serious
With all this talk about a threat to us
Staying alive
Staying alive when the night is cold

But then a friend of mine was called one day
I knew there couldn't be another way
I'll hold you tight
I'll hold you tight when the night is cold
