I need to find a way to say the things I need to say
But it's so hard to find the perfect words and perfect time
Through the times I'm just not sure
If I can fake much more and my path has shift turned I found the words I'm searching for

~CHORUS~:

I don't wanna wait
I just want to bury the memories and carry on with this YEAH!
And if you wonder why, then I'll tell you
I'm tired of things you brought around
And life is much better now

The things that you adore have left you standing wanting more
No one could know cause you
Don't show the side that I've disowned
All the feelings that I've sustained
I've carried far and now I've drained
And once again the blames on you so turn it around like you always do

~CHORUS~

So far from it this part of me
I see the summit
From the deep YEAH!

~CHORUS~

All that remains are feelings you've strained
All I retain are feelins that you've strained
