Am I holding back feelings that I show.
I guess Im just scared to tell you what I know.
Girl youve got me wrapped all around your words.
So please speak up now, man if you only knew herwhen
you wish upon a star it makes no difference who you are. Anything your heart desires I will give to you.
Is it just me or are you everything Ive dreamed?
... I can read your eyes like a childhood book.
And I become real and I know I should.
Though my words are frail would you be mine tonight?
